

Dr. Alexis Morvant completed her medical doctorate at LSU School of Medicine in New Orleans. Before this, she received a Master's degree in Bioethics from Loyola Marymount University. She then completed post-graduate training at the Vanderbilt Pediatric Residency Program and then the Harvard Palliative Medicine Pediatric Fellowship at Boston Children's Hospital and Dana Farber Cancer Institute. Her current position is Assistant Professor of Clinical Pediatrics at LSU Health Sciences Center and Chief of the Pediatric Palliative Care Program at Children's Hospital New Orleans. She is the founder and Chair of the Gulf States Pediatric Palliative Care Consortium, which currently has over 50 members and nine disciplines represented spanning both Louisiana and Mississippi.