

Allison DeLaney currently serves as a chaplain for the Pediatric, Neonatal and Women's Health units in the Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Medical Center and as an Instructor in the Department of Patient Counseling of the College of Health Professions. She holds a B.S. from the University of Florida, a M.A. from Catholic Theological Union, and a Master's in Public Health from VCU. She completed her Chaplaincy Residency training at Loyola Hospital in Maywood, Illinois 2004-2005 and has been a Board Certified Chaplain through the National Association of Catholic Chaplains since 2006. She is also a Palliative Care and Hospice Advanced Certified Chaplain (PCHAC).

Prior to coming to VCU, Allison served for 8 years as Chaplain and Bereavement Coordinator at Hospice House and Support Care of Williamsburg. Her passions include: perinatal palliative care, staff resilience, and interdisciplinary team communication

Her home is with her husband, three children, and a puppy named Peach on a "farmette" in Williamsburg, Virginia. She enjoys gardening, hiking, and contemplative practices.