

Rev. Matt Norvell, M.Div., M.S., B.C.C. is a Pediatric Chaplain for the Johns Hopkins Children's Center. He also serves as the Clinical Manager for the Department of Spiritual Care at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Matt currently serves on the pediatric palliative care team, leads the Children's Center Annual Tribute Service, serves on the hospital Diversity Council, and is the education chair for the Johns Hopkins Hospital ethics committee. He is co-director of the RISE (Resilience In Stressful Events) peer support program for Johns Hopkins Medicine.