

Terri Warren, MSW currently serves as Chief of Hospice and Palliative Care for Providence Home and Community Care with operational responsibility in Alaska, Washington, Oregon, California and Texas. Services include 14 hospice programs and multiple cross-continuum palliative care services for adults and children. Prior to this, she served as Executive Director for Providence Senior and Community Services-CA (TrinityCare Hospice, TrinityKids Care, Providence Home Care, Little Company of Mary Home Health, and palliative services across the continuum). Under Terri's leadership, continuum service adult volume has grown by more than 12% and TrinityKids Care has evolved into the leading provider for pediatric hospice and palliative care in Los Angeles and Orange counties and the only hospice program in the area to be staffed by a dedicated pediatric interdisciplinary team. In addition to organizational focus on developing and expanding palliative services across the continuum of care in California, she served on the Board of Directors for the Children's Hospice and Palliative Care Coalition and later the Coalition for Compassionate Care of California, and has also served on the Governance and Membership Committees of the Board of Directors for the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization. Terri has worked with TrinityCare/Providence Health & Services since 1993 serving in multiple leadership positions for hospice, continuum care and AIDS Care Management. Terri graduated with a BA in Psychology, Summa Cum Laude, from College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts and an MSW, Summa Cum Laude from Boston College in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts.
